Part 1: Theory (20 Marks)

Answer all questions. Each question carries 4 marks.

Q1. Importance of the World Wide Web (4 Marks)

Explain what the World Wide Web (WWW) is. Discuss its importance in modern education and business. Provide at least two real-life examples.

Q2. Static vs Dynamic Websites (4 Marks)

Differentiate between static and dynamic websites. Give two examples of each type. Explain which type is easier to maintain and why.

Q3. Markup Languages vs Programming Languages (4 Marks)

Compare markup languages and programming languages. In which category does HTML fall and why? Also briefly explain HTML standards and their importance.

Q4. HTML Document Structure and Related Concepts (4 Marks)

Describe the basic structure of an HTML document. Explain the purpose of the following:

- `<!DOCTYPE html>`
- `<html>`, `<head>`, `<body>`
- `<meta>` tags
- HTML file extensions
- HTML editors

Q5. Analysis of Two HTML Files (4 Marks)

You have been provided with two different HTML files:

> File A contains: a table with `border="1"`, `<thead>`, `<tbody>`, `<tr>`, `<th>`, `<td>`, and commented anchor and image tags.
>
> File B contains: paragraphs, text formatting tags (``, ``, ``), and headings from `<h1>` to `<h6>`.

Analyze both files and answer:

- Which HTML concepts are demonstrated in each file?
- Why is the code different in both files?
- What does this tell you about the flexibility of HTML?
